The Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Alaska is charged with the primary responsibility for prosecuting all federal crimes from acts of terrorism to public corruption, white-collar crime, organized crime and gang activities, internet-related crimes, and many other criminal acts. The criminal side of the Office is broken into several sections. These are: white collar crime, terrorism, violent crime and drugs and appeals. Through its Civil Division, the Office is charged with defending agencies of the United States, enforcing regulatory agencies' authority, and recovering funds from violators of U.S. criminal, regulatory, and civil laws.

Projected No. of Volunteers: 2 – 4

Internship Location(s): (3) Anchorage, Alaska; (1) Fairbanks, Alaska

Application Materials: Cover letter, resume, official law school transcript, legal writing sample, date when available, and telephone number(s) where a student can be reached in the day and evenings.

Qualifications: First-year (second semester), second- and third-year law students. Must be a U.S. citizen. There is a required background check because of the sensitive nature of the work performed by the United States Attorney's Office.

Application Deadline: September 1st for Spring Program (January - May)
February 1st for Summer Program (June - August)
May 1st for Fall Program (September - December)

Minimum Weeks Required: 10 weeks

Salary: Volunteer (without compensation) or work-study credit

Assignments: Perform research projects and assist in trial preparation. To ensure that all interns finish the summer with a good writing sample, every intern will work under the guidance of an AUSA, to prepare documents to be filed with the court. Interns will also be given assignments in as many different divisions and units as possible, providing exposure to a wide variety of practice areas and a number of AUSAs. We also host brown bag lunches at which AUSAs, the defense bar, the judiciary, and federal agents speak. Our goal is to introduce our interns to the federal legal system, to develop their legal skills and, above all, to enjoy their summer.
